In re:

MARK A. GUTMAN and
JERI LYNN POLING, individuals d/b/a
GRAND RIVER FUR EXCHANGE,

Respondents.

AWA No. 10- 0375

COMPLAINT

There is reason to believe that the respondents named herein have violated the Animal Welfare Act, as amended (7 U.S.C. §§ 2131-2159) (the "Act" or "AWA"), and the regulations and standards issued pursuant to the Act (9 C.F.R. §§ 1.1-3.142) (the "Regulations"). Therefore, the Administrator of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service ("APHIS") issues this complaint alleging as follows:

JURISDICTIONAL ALLEGATIONS

1. Respondent Mark Alan Gutman is an individual whose mailing address is 6310 U.S. Route 6, Rome, Ohio 44085.
2. Respondent Jeri Lynn Poling is an individual whose mailing address is 6310 U.S. Route 6, Rome, Ohio 44085.
3. Respondents Mark Alan Gutman and Jeri Lynn Poling collectively and/or individually do and/or have done business as Grand River Fur Exchange ("GRFE").
4. GRFE is believed to be an unincorporated association or partnership with the mailing address 6310 U.S. Route 6, Rome, Ohio 44085.

5. Respondents Mark Gutman, Jeri Lynn Poling and GRFE (collectively "respondents"), at all material times mentioned herein, have operated as a dealer, as defined in the Act and Regulations.

6. At all material times mentioned herein, respondents have operated without an Animal Welfare Act license.

7. At all material times mentioned herein, respondents have held a "commercial propagating license" issued by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources, Division of Wildlife.

ALLEGATIONS REGARDING THE SIZE OF RESPONDENTS' BUSINESS, THE GRAVITY OF THE ALLEGED VIOLATIONS AND
RESPONDENTS' COMPLIANCE HISTORY AND GOOD FAITH

8. Respondents have shielded the full size of their business from APHIS.

9. Respondents are believed to have at least a moderate-sized business.

10. For example, in 2007, respondents are believed to have sold no fewer than 89 wild and/or exotic animals, including skunks, raccoons, coyotes, and foxes.

11. In 2006, respondents are believed to have sold no fewer than 75 wild and/or exotic animals, including wolves, skunks, raccoons, coyotes, and foxes.

12. The gravity of the violations alleged herein is serious. They include repeated instances in which respondents, without being licensed, operated as a dealer, which is a serious violation because enforcement of the Act and Regulations depends upon the identification of persons operating as dealers.

13. Although respondents do not have a previous history of litigated violations, respondents' conduct over the period described herein reveals a consistent disregard for, and unwillingness to abide by, the requirements of the Act and the Regulations. Despite being made aware of the licensing requirements under the Act and Regulations, respondents continued to engage in regulated activity without a license and have sold numerous wild and/or exotic animals, including to at least one licensed exhibitor. Such an ongoing pattern of violations establishes a "history of previous violations" for the purposes of section 2149(b) of the Act (7 U.S.C. § 2149(b)) and lack of good faith.

ALLEGATIONS

14. No later than on or about February 25, 2003, APHIS began providing respondents with written and other notice of respondents' need to comply with the Act and Regulations, and, in particular, the licensing requirements therein.

15. APHIS has provided respondents with written and other notice of respondents' need to comply with the Act and Regulations, and, in particular, the licensing requirements therein, on multiple occasions, including, for example, on or about at least the following dates: February 25, 2003; June 11, 2003 and June 5, 2004.

18. Since at least on or about July 2005, and continuing through the present, respondents have operated as a dealer, as that term is defined in the Act and the Regulations, without being licensed, and have offered for sale wild and/or exotic animals, such as, for example, skunks, raccoons, coyotes, and foxes, for use as pets or exhibition purposes.

Each violation and each day each violation occurred constitutes a separate violation. 7 U.S.C. § 2149(b). These violations took place on multiple occasions, including but not limited to on or about at least the following dates: July 7, 2005; June 9, 2006; July 18, 2008; December 15, 2008; July 18, 2009.

20. Since at least on or about February 2006, and continuing through the present, respondents have sold, in commerce, numerous wild and/or exotic animals, such as, for example, skunks, raccoons, coyotes, and foxes.

The sale of each animal constitutes a separate violation. 7 U.S.C. § 2149(b). These violations took place on multiple occasions, including but not limited to on or about at least the following dates: May 5, 2006; May 6, 2006; May 11, 2006; May 12, 2006; May 31, 2006; June 6, 2006; June 17, 2006; June 20, 2006; July 2, 2006; and August 2, 2006.

WHEREFORE, it is hereby requested that for the purpose of determining whether respondents have in fact willfully violated the Act and the Regulations issued under the Act, this complaint shall be served respondents. Respondents shall file an answer with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250-9200, in accordance with the Rules of Practice governing proceedings under the Act (7 C.F.R. § 1.130 et seq.). The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service requests:

1. That unless Respondents fail to file an Answer within the time allowed therefor, or file an Answer admitting all the material allegations of this Complaint, this proceeding be set for hearing in conformity with the Rules of Practice governing proceedings under the Act; and

2. That such order or orders be issued as are authorized by the Act and warranted under the circumstances, including an order: (a) requiring respondents to cease and desist from violating the Act and Regulations; (b) disqualifying respondents from obtaining an AWA license; and (c) assessing civil penalties against respondents in accordance with section 2149 of the Act (7 U.S.C. § 2149).
